DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments filed May 7, 2007 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive (regarding claims 13-19, 23 and 24).

Applicant agrees that Rajkotia discloses full and differential BSP messages (page 9, lines 1-3 of the remarks). The applicant, however, argues that Rajkotia fails to disclose receiving/sending a BSPM message that contains a partial BSPM wherein each partial BSPM contains information for one or more different BCMC flows, the sequence of plural partial BSPMs together containing information for all existing BCMC flows.

Although this may true, independent claims 13 and 23 only require one of the three types of BSP messages based on the "or" limitation. Thus receiving/sending a BSPM message that contains a partial BSPM wherein each partial BSPM contains information for one or more different BCMC flows, the sequence of plural partial BSPMs together containing information for all existing BCMC flows is an optional limitation.

Based on the above remarks, claims 13-19, 23 and 24 stand rejected as set forth below.

However, the arguments pertaining to claims 1-12 and 20-22 are persuasive and the rejection to those claims has been withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 13-19, 23 and 24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Rajkotia, U.S. Patent Pub. No. 2005/0053023

Regarding claims 13-19, 23 and 24, Rajkotia discloses in a wireless communications network that supports Broadcast-Multicast (BCMC) Services (BCMCS), a method comprising the steps of: receiving a BCMC Services Parameters Messages (BSPM) together with an indication that the BSPM is: (1) a full BSPM that contains information for all existing flows, (2) a differential BSPM that contains at least one of updated information for one or more existing BCMC flows and information for one or more new BCMC flows, or (3) a partial BSPM that is one in a sequence of plural partial BSPMs that the partial BSPM contain information for one or more different BCMC flows and wherein the sequence of plural partial BSPMs together contains information for all existing BCMC flows (0047, 0048, 0052, 0053, 0066).

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 1-12 and 20-22 are allowed.

Conclusion

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

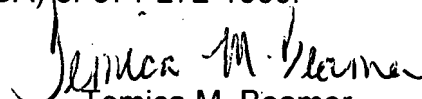

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
